Title: Climate Change
Artist: DEZTROYER

DEZTROYER

Climate Change - 30th Anniversary Edition

In September 1990, DEZTROYER from Hesse released their only LP called „Climate Change“.

Probably the somewhat mysterious label D&S only had 100 copies pressed, which explains a price starting at 300 Euro for the original LP. A genuine metal rarity!

But just this fact is not enough to justify a re-release.

Deztroyer played technically demanding Speed- and Thrash Metal!

The late eighties brought forth a whole bunch of bands all over the world, which took this style to a higher level without losing any of its punch. If „Climate Change“ have had a better distribution spread, Deztroyer would be at the forefront when also naming bands like Realm (USA) or Target (Belgium) today. In underground circles, it is of course well known that parts of the band used to work for Arrow, whose two mini LPs are now cult!

„Climate Change“ was recorded from an original LP by Patrick Engel (Temple At Disharmony Studio) and then remastered by Neudi (Manilla Road among others). The band not only provided bonus tracks (CD 1), but also all demos, which can now be found on CD2 as remastered versions. In addition, a new cover was provided, which reflects the unfortunately still current topic of climate change as well as the original one being also included and usable as an alternative CD cover. Liner notes and many rare photos top off a perfect re-release.

Title: Zurück zum Swing
 Artist: DJANGO HEINRICH REINHARDT

Django Heinrich Reinhardt: „Zurück zum Swing“ (Back to Swing)

With this album the well-known musician Django H. Reinhardt from Koblenz opens a new chapter in his career. In 2020 he celebrates his 50th stage anniversary. Countless concerts with covered world hits have made him internationally famous. Now he has decided to play his own musical style. He goes a new way „Back to Swing“. Based on the music of his famous father Daweli Reinhardt, solo guitarist and co-founder of the Schnuckenack-Reinhardt Quintet, he has produced a swing album with jazzy songs in German language - always authentic and charming as Django himself. With this album he not only returns to the musical roots of his family, he also reinterprets them in new ways, like with „Der Mond schaut uns zu“ (The moon is watching us). This first single of „Zurück zum Swing“ (Back to Swing) is about typical relationship dynamics of lovers, told by Django in a cool and relaxed way. The musician from Koblenz gets musical support from well-known stars like drummer Peter Lübke (Udo Jürgens & Pepe Lienhard) or from trumpeter Axel Schlosser and fellow musicians of the Big Band of the Hessian Broadcasting Corporation.

Title: The Marble Gates To Apeiron
Artist: ARRAYAN PATH

The Epic Power Metal force that is ARRAYAN PATH returns with the band's 8th full-length, a follow-up to 2018's double-disc album „Archegonoi“.

The new ARRAYAN PATH album is much heavier than its predecessor and more on the „up-tempo“ scale, while at the same time maintaining all the characteristics and trademarks that make up the unmistakable style and sound of ARRAYAN PATH.

Nicholas Leptos, the band's driving force (also current vocalist of legendary WARLORD) comments: „We worried less about doing something ‚out of the ordinary‘ and more about writing good melodic metal songs. There was also more collaboration between the band members, maybe more than ever before!“

Lyric-wise, even though the new album is not a concept album, it does have a common theme running among the songs, one that deals with human nature as it has developed through the ages. For this reason the album is „divided“ into 3 parts, with each part made up of 3 songs: The Past, The Present and The Future.

Even though the subject matter might seem varied between songs, as already mentioned there is a central theme that revolves around human reaction and response; from the destruction of our planet, to people's quarrels regarding the pandemic, life, death, religion and mourning; and of course, somewhere in all that, the band's favorite subject since forever: mythology!

For fans of: Iron Maiden, Rhapsody, Kamelot, Helloween, Crimson Glory, Warlord
