Title: Mrs. Jesus & Kokoon

Artist: KOKOON

Not every talented band has managed to pursue a successful career. One example is Kokoon from Germany, whose progressive and hard pop rock was only known locally between 2002 and 2008. Similar to many artists from the fields of visual arts or classical music, Kokoon hit the scene quasi „posthumously“.

Three pre-installed songs from the album „Mrs. Jesus“ (2008) made it to an MP3 player from Archos, which was hip at the time. So the song „Save Me“ became a hit for Kokoon only after the band had already ceased to exist. Fans from all over the world tried to find out who this band was. As a result, the former band members received numerous enquiries, but in the meantime they had become well-known with other projects.

Only small quantities of the two original CDs (2003, 2008) were pressed by the group itself and sold exclusively at their few performances. The number of copies was extremely small, so that the two albums became rarities. Namedropping is the second reason why Kokoon are better known today than in their active days.

Guitarist and songwriter Kristian „Kohle“ Kohlmannslehner has been a sought-after producer and engineer („Kohlekeller Studio“) for many years and has already worked with famous artists like Joachim Witt, Eskimo Callboy, Powerwolf, Hämatom or Subsignal. Drummer Neudi has also only become better known after Kokoon (Manilla Road, Savage Grace, Roxxcalibur, Trance, Jameson Raid, etc.).

The remarkable voice of Nadine Bonifer dominates the unusual mixture between intelligent pop, rock, metal and progressive elements. It is therefore no surprise that major labels had a great interest in Kokoon about 10 years ago.

However, there was no agreement between them and the band on a compromise regarding the conditions for a release.

Now the band has finally given the green light for a re-release of their self-produced, rare albums on Golden Core.

This band should have made it big!

Title: Die Tonight
 Artist: CUTTY SARK

Vinyl

NOW ON VINYL!

Cutty Sark from the former German capital of Bonn was like Warlock one of the German bands at the cult label Mausoleum. After a self-produced EP (1983) they finally got the desired deal and presented their first long-player named „Die Tonight“ (1984).

Local bands that had no contracts with big labels like « Noise » usually had difficulties to make it into the metal press, but not Cutty Sark. The LP received very good reviews and the band also appeared in the Metal Hammer with interviews and even a poster.

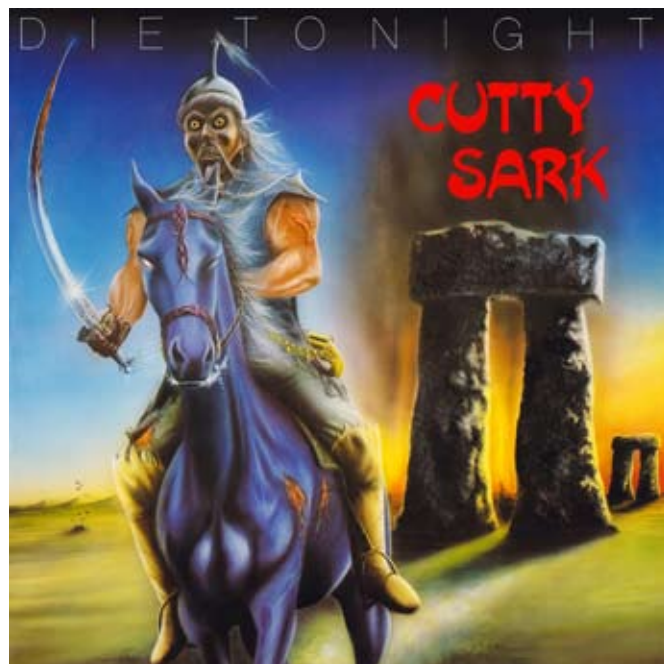

Also „Heroes“ (1985) was very successful. Thus, it is a mystery why this Mausoleum highlight could not advance in their career. After all, the band reunited in the late nineties and released their last album „Regeneration“. This was also the last sign of life by the band. Since then the members are no longer findable. Unlike other genres, you do not forget about such bands in heavy metal! The two albums released on Mausoleum, especially „Die Tonight“, are today regarded as important milestones of early German Metal.

Bootleg T-shirts and frequent sharing of Youtube videos in social media make it clear: Cutty Sark are cult!

And when the craziest US fan and singer „King Fowley“ and his band Doomstone cover the title track „Die Tonight“ and wear Cutty Sark shirts on stage, it underlines the cult status of Germans all the more.

Of course, he was honored to contribute a few words for the booklet on the occasion of this reissue of the two albums. It also contains a short history, photos and memorabilia. Both LPs were remastered by Neudi (Manilla Road).

A must for all Metalheads!

Title: All Or Nothing
Artist: SUDDEN DEATH

Vinyl

NOW ON VINYL!

Due to the competition from the USA and England, Heavy Metal made in Germany was often not noticed in the eighties. When the only LP of the Berlin band Sudden Death was released in 1987, the speed and thrash wave as well as the softer hair metal groups were also popular. Today, however, headbangers love the bands that were caught between two stools 30 years ago.

For an original of „All Or Nothing“ you have to dig deep into your pockets and even a Russian CD bootleg has its costs. In 1986 SUDDEN DEATH produced three tracks with Harris Johns in the Music Lab Studio, who also sat at the mixing desk on „All Or Nothing“. There were never any mangy rehearsal room demos on Sudden Death. They always produced at full throttle.

Trendless, powerful Heavy Metal can't sound better!
