Title: Carpe DiemArtist: TALLA 2XLC

In pandemic times where everyone more or less has to stay at home, Talla 2XLC is busier than ever and is releasing his second artist album on „Thats trance“ and Zyx Music. Talla 2XLC himself says, „Right now my music is important to distract the fans a little from stressful everyday life“. Since May 2020, Talla has been streaming three times a week on Twitch.tv/realtalla2xlc with great success. This album again contains a „best of“ his singles, which were released in 2020, but also completely new and unreleased tracks, e.g. the title single „Carpe Diem“, „Superstition“ and „Summer solstice“. Plus the hits „Cicada“, „Mantra“ and much more! The second (bonus) CD is an exclusive non-stop DJ mix from Talla. All in all, again a brilliant trance album for all fans of Talla 2XLC and his music.

Title: Klaasics

Artist: KLAAS

Hardly any other producer has managed to position himself at the top of the world's DJ elite in such a short time and nobody has influenced the global electro house sound like Klaas.

The Cologne native started his career in the late 90s and within the following years he created some brilliant remixes for renowned artists. But also lesser known artists were honored with a remixes by Klaas, because he is able to do an interesting diversity of styles. For this reason it has become a must for every fan of house or electro music to have at least one track by Klaas on his player.

On this double CD we proudly present selected Klaas remixes like „Ok Without You“, „Mr. Saxobeat“, „Someone Like You“, „Fighter“ and his new hit „Fever“.

Title: Iceflowered - The Complete Work
 Artist: ECONOMIST

Sudden Darkness was an unlucky speed and thrash metal band from the Rhine-Neckar area.

The status of „local heroes“ stuck with them, because the LP „Fear Of Reality“, recorded in 1988, simply did not appear for GAMA Records.

The original line-up split up and bassist Guido Holzmann and drummer Neudi continued with a new singer and guitarist. Instead of transforming the frustration into even harder music, the new line-up (with „real vocalist“) showed an irrepressible creativity, which not only resulted in a new band name, but also in a new style, which united almost every aspect of 80s heavy metal.

In 1984 the debut „New Built Ghetto Status“ was released at Massacre/Intercord. It received very good reviews and reached four-digit sales figures. On the other hand it caused problems for the press and also for some metal fans.

Until today there is no other group that sounds like Economist. Therefore it is logical that even a description of the style is difficult.

„Psycho Metal“ is what the band called their music. In a certain way you can hear a certain closeness of style to Anacrusis, Damn The Machine, Voivod, but also Black Sabbath.

A second album („Mind Movies“, 1995) remained unreleased and can be heard for the first time in full length on this double CD.

Today, after 25 to 30 more years of heavy metal history, both discs are easier to understand and make exactly the sense that many fans did not recognize 2 to 3 decades ago.

Some musicians from Economist later appeared in well-known acts like Manilla Road, Roxxcalibur, Savage Grace, Century, Viron, Jameson Raid and Trance.

FACTS:

- first complete re-release of the unusual album „New Built Ghetto Status“ from 1994, completely restored and remastered
- the unreleased second album „Mind Movies“ (1995) for the first time in full length
- rare demo- and live songs as bonus tracks
- 20-page booklet with liner notes by drummer Neudi, rare photos and memorabilia
- Economist is one of the 90s favorite bands of Fenriz (Darkthrone)
