Title: Slave Of GodArtist: HELLBREATH

„Slave of God“ from 1988 is the only album by the Ravensburg band HELLBREATH, which they produced completely on their own.

The original vinyl is kind of an ultimate rarity. But the main argument for a re-release is the unique, quirky style being much appreciated by many metal fans, even though others may not understand the often complex songs and prefer to stick to mainstream bands being easier to understand. HELLBREATH are and remain a secret tip for insiders!

What do we hear on „Slave Of God“? Basically the already mentioned style of a kind, which exists only on this one single record!!!

The band itself could do little with the eighties metal at first and were rather rooted in the seventies (e.g. by Led Zeppelin, Black Sabbath, Deep Purple and Pink Floyd as mentioned in the liner notes, but also Motörhead, Iron Maiden and Judas Priest). But also speed and thrash metal bands like Slayer, Metallica and Exodus (also named by the band) massively inspired and influenced Hellbreath. And now you just have to imagine a combination of the 70s heroes with this new level of hardness and you get a bit closer to the point. It sounds like as if the prog and hard rock of the seventies would turn into speed / thrash metal without a stopover!

Expecting that from a current band today wouldn't even be so special, but in 1988 it was almost unimaginable.

Furthermore, instead of using lurid band photos, Hellbreath just put a work of art on the cover. They simply did EVERYTHING in a different way!

That the first gig took place in a prison or that they rented a house and set up the studio in it, are only two more proofs for the band's fascinating eccentricism.

Now „Slave Of God“ is available on CD for the first time, re-recorded from the original master tape and remastered by Neudi (Manilla Road, Trance, Griffin etc.).

As a bonus you can find some songs of the follow-up group FRANTIC FRONT, which arrived at ZYX Music shortly before the deadline. They are also marked by an untamed creativity, although a little bit more Death Metal like sounding. The booklet contains unseen photos, an interview with the band and other rare illustrations.

Title: Don Giovanni / Così Fan TutteArtist: MOZART: WIENER PHILHARMONIKER / K. BÖHM / J. KRIPS

Get this 5CD box set and enjoy 2 of Mozart's most popular operas!

Don Giovanni or „The punished libertine“ !

That's how the probably the most famous opera by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart is named. Some even call it the „opera of all operas.“

This recording is a phenomenal interpretation by the Vienna Philharmonic conducted by the legendary Josef Krips.

Featuring legendary artists such as Cesare Siepi, Suzanne Danco, Lisa della Casa, Fernando Corena, Anton Dermota, Hilde Gueden, Walter Berry and Kurt Böhme.

Così fan tutte - that's how everyone does it!

One of Mozart's most popular operas (an opera buffa - that is, a comic opera) about the faithlessness of women (and men) was premiered in January 1790 at the Burgtheater in Vienna.

This recording, conducted by the incomparable Karl Böhm with the Vienna Philharmonic, features Lisa della Casa, Christa Ludwig, Erich Kunz, Anton Dermota and many others.

Title: A Bossa Nova Legend
Artist: JOAO GILBERTO

João Gilberto, the singer with the soft voice, was considered the father of bossa nova. With songs like Chega de Saudade (Never Again Longing) he reached world fame.

His beautiful guitar playing paired with his soothing Portuguese vocals will make you feel as if these wonderful songs were written just for you.
