Title: Zefix

Artist: CHRIS STEGER

Chris Steger's debut album „ZEFIX“ will be released on 22 October 2021!

At the age of just 16, Salzburg's Chris Steger became Austropop's youngest star overnight with the hit „Zefix“. With over 3 million Spotify streams and 4.5 million Youtube views, the song is one of the most popular Austropop hits of 2020. Numerous TV appearances and sold-out concerts throughout Austria followed.

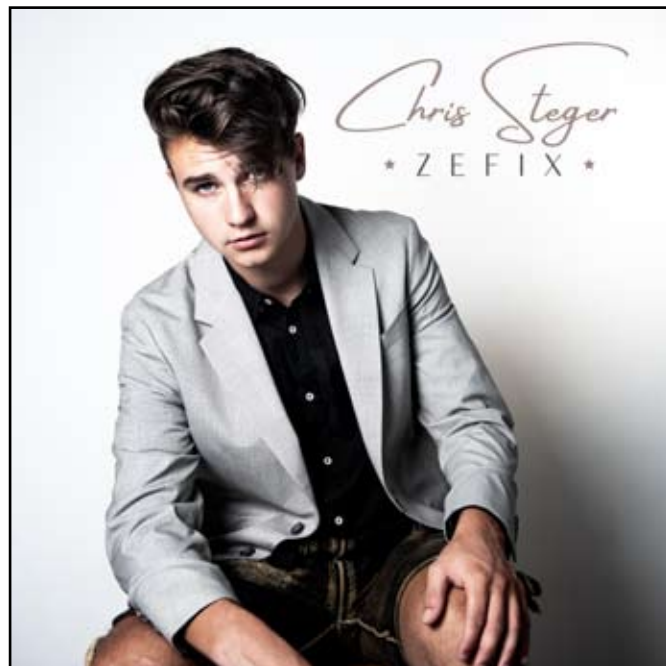

And on Thursday, 9 September, the time had come - CHRIS STEGER is also the youngest Amadeus winner of all time! In the category „Song of the Year“ the newcomer won with „ZEFIX“.

Chris Steger's debut album, named after his first hit, will be released on 22 October.

Since „Zefix“, Chris Steger's life has been very busy. But besides concert, interview and filming dates and, above all, school, the likeable singer has also recorded his first album. Chris addresses moving topics with the songs on his debut, and hits straight to the heart.

The song „Zefix“ tells of suddenly falling in love. „Leicht kennt ma's hom“ spreads the important message „Love is stronger than hate“ and became one of the biggest Austropop radio hits of 2021. With heartrending ballads like „Woan Nua“ to rocking songs like „Fuat auf'd Nocht“ or „Oans, Zwoa, Drei“, the album covers a broad emotional spectrum, making listeners groove at times, laugh at others, but also cry.

Most of the 13 songs on the album were written by producer Christof Straub, who is also Chris Steger's discoverer. In cooperation with Chris Steger, the lyrics were adapted to the Salzburg dialect. But the young singer himself also makes his debut as a songwriter with the song „Du bist Du“. And lovers of „classic Austropop“ will also find special treats on the album with Peter Cornelius' immortal „Du entschuldige i kenn di“ and the touching „Mach die Aug'n zu“ by STS.

Title: Fear Of Reality - A German Thrash Story 1985-1991

Artist: SUDDEN DARKNESS

When the internet spawned the first heavy metal sites at the turn of the millennium, some collectors noticed that there was a gap in the 1988 discography of GAMA Records (Stormwitch, Tyrant, SDI, Darkness, Tokyo Blade and many more).

Only the band name and title were known: Sudden Darkness and their LP „Fear Of Reality“. A little later it came out that the record had not been released in its finished form, but as a test pressing. The band from Germany got twelve copies of it, most of which were given away to friends while they waited in frustration for the „real release“, which should have broken the chains of being only a regional band. Sudden Darkness split up and were subsequently continued by bassist Guido Holzmann (later with Century, Giant's Causeway, among others) and drummer Neudi (later with Manilla Road, Savage Grace, Roxxcalibur, Trance, Jameson Raid and many more) as Economist with a new singer and guitarist. The entire output of this group was released in January 2021 on Golden Core as a double CD under the name „Iceflowered“ (GCR20148-2).

Sudden Darkness began their musical activities in the Ludwigshafen area (south-west Germany) as a typical, regional hard rock band that performed some cover versions as well as their own songs. Only guitarist Volker Faust and singer Marcus Beringer took a liking to the new bands, which were dedicated to speed metal and later thrash. The two teenagers Guido Holzmann (bass) and Neudi (drums) had just given up their extreme metal project Reptile (in 1985...) when they joined Sudden Darkness.

Already the first demo tape „Lord Nightmare“ contained a real speed track with „Living In Sin“. This musical orientation did not please the second guitarist Jaro Krnac at all, he left and Sudden Darkness became a quartet. The first gig took place in 1986 in a well-filled sports hall as headliner (!). Marcus Beringer broke his right knee already during the second song and finished the show sitting down. When he left the group, various demos and singer changes followed. And the style already turned to thrash with the regional hit (no exaggeration!) „Satanic Butcher“. The demo „Fear Of Reality“, which was first recorded with Neudi as singer (previously unreleased versions can be found on this CD!), presented metalpunk Alki (RIP) as the new frontman. And finally this tape brought about the long hoped-for record deal. The contract went to GAMA Records, who immediately sent the young quartet to Zuckerfabrik Studios in Stuttgart. There they recorded their debut „Fear Of Reality“, which unfortunately was not released.

In the USA, a double CD with material from Sudden Darkness and Economist was released in 2014, and in 2016 the German company Diabolic Might followed up with a vinyl of „Fear Of Reality“. In Europe, the CD was only available as an import and has long been out of print. In the meantime, drummer Neudi was able to track down some more rare material, so that the double CD on Golden Core can now offer almost all of the band's recordings in restored form. A highlight is the first, unreleased mix of the LP, which GAMA rushed to send to a few press people only as a tape. The most important thing is of course the LP „Fear Of Reality“, which only „appeared“ as a test pressing and recently changed hands on Discogs for 949,-.
