Title: Dead Lady GlovesArtist: FATHOM NAGG

Since the Internet has conquered the world, and thus also the metal scene, it is almost impossible to find completely unknown and unheard gems from the heyday of heavy metal - the eighties. But Golden Core has now succeeded with the find of FATHOM NAGG from Wichita, Kansas!

Fathom Nagg were a local trio from the city made famous worldwide by epic metallers MANILLA ROAD: Wichita. In recent years, bands like Llectric Leather or Stygian Shore have already been rediscovered, while acts from the nineties like Dead Orchestra are still remembered. But most metal fans haven't heard of Fathom Nagg yet. Even on the relevant rarity blogs one searches in vain for the group with the strange name.

If you think of musty rehearsal room recordings now, you are wrong. Fathom Nagg brought it on two demo tapes, which were recorded in professional studios. One of them is Miller Studio, where all eighties albums by Manilla Road were recorded. It is not 100% confirmed yet, but the first five songs on the CD were probably even produced by Mark Shelton himself.

Fathom Nagg captivate their listeners with a style that was extremely rare in US metal at the end of the eighties. One experiences a kind of powerful mixture between traditional power metal and thrash metal. Laaz Rockit and Cyclone Temple would be two vague comparisons that can be drawn in this regard. In addition the songs fascinate again and again by exciting turns. They call the term „progressive“ to mind. But in all this, the full power of heavy metal clearly reigns, which is always palpable thanks to the good productions of the two tapes.

The first official release of the two tapes includes ten songs. As a bonus you can find seven live tracks, which come from a mixer recording. The sound material was remastered by Neudi. Currently, the band is trying to reconstruct some song titles, as they are not yet complete. Also, an extensive booklet is being worked on at full speed, which fits this musical tidbit.

Title: Frohe Weihnocht - Weihnachtslieder aus ÖsterreichArtist: VARIOUS*Österreichische Weihnachtslieder

gesungen und gespielt nach alter Tradition Weihnachten, das Fest der Liebe, das Hochfest. Weihnachten ist am Schönsten wenn wir uns unter dem Christbaum versammeln, um gemeinsam zu singen und zu musizieren.

Der Duft von Lebkuchen und Kerzen, die dunkle Stube und der glänzende Baum, und die Klänge von „Stille Nacht“, das ist Weihnachten. Wir sind zurückversetzt in die magische Zeit, als wir noch ans Christkindl Briefe geschrieben haben. Wie kein anderes Fest hat Weihnachten die Menschen zum Lieder schreiben inspiriert. Für diese CD haben sich 12 österreichische Künstler zusammengefunden um miteinander zu musizieren. Begleitet von Hackbrett und Quetschn, Zither und Klampfn singen sie uns die schönsten Lieder - unsere Weihnachtslieder. Fast so wie früher.
