Title: Condemned To Be Doomed (1988)

Artist: SCARECROW

- worldwide first re-release of one of the most unusual German Thrash-/Crossoveralbums, originally in the year 1988 in own direction published
- includes all recordings of the band (singles, compilations, unreleased)
- Restored and remastered by Neudi
- vinyl transfer by Patrick Engel, DAT transfers by Eroc (Grobschnitt)
- Concept album!
- Late Eighties oldschool Thrash and Crossover

Interchangeable, pleasing metal albums may ignite immediately and inspire in the first days after the acquisition, but really lasting are often the records with which one must first -more or less- deal. „Condemned To Be Doomed“ by the German band SCARECROW, who mixed technical thrash with crossover (DRI, etc.) in an idiosyncratic way, is such an album and so the first re-release is again sophisticated fodder for explorers and advanced listeners.

SCARECROW sprang from the crossover band BEATFIX in 1987 and quite quickly recorded a now-lost demo. But one song from it („Repression“) made it onto the compilation „German Metal Fighters, Vol. 2“ (which also features Tempest and Poison Asp) from the cult D&S label. After a few line-up changes, they decided to continue to take their fate into their own hands and produced the LP „Condemned To Be Doomed“ in 1988 (two editions of 500 copies each). Two 7“ EPs followed, which of course can also be found on this CD. Guitarist Jens Ribow later appeared with MP and with Lazzer, singer Thomas Haller built up with Weed Productions, later (and until today) Flight13, a still active punk and alternative mailorder.

The nowadays quite rare LP (especially the version with the cover picture in black and white) was overdubbed by Patrick Engel (High Roller, Metal Blade etc.), while the two singles were available as DAT tapes, taken care of by Eroc (Grobschnitt). The collected material was subsequently remastered by Neudi. The booklet contains liner notes (actual interview with the band), many rare photos and other illustrations. If you like tech thrash with a punk/HC edge, you can't avoid „Condemned To Be Doomed“!

Title: Beyond The Universe
 Artist: RICK DERRINGER

„Rock'n'Roll Hoochie Koo“ is an immortal rock classic, as is the smash hit „Hang On Sloopy“ by the McCOYS. In both cases the American guitarist Rick Derringer is behind it, but to reduce his work to these two hits would be a big mistake. Not only did he work with JOHNNY and EDGAR WINTER and release several successful albums himself (most notably „All American Boy“ from 1973), but he also achieved worldwide fame as a studio musician (Alice Cooper, Kiss, Steely Dan and many more). Later he also played with DERRINGER, BOGERT & APPICE and with RINGO STARRS ALLSTAR BAND. Born in 1947, the musician is still active today.

„Beyond The Universe“ is an album of new recordings that sounds wonderfully warm and transparent, yet equally powerful and dynamic. The special thing here is also that Rick Derringer even remembers his beginnings with the McCOYS and does not leave them out.

A must for each and every rock fans!

Title: Greatest Hits

Artist: MITCH MILLER

The great career of the orchestra leader and oboist Mitch Miller really began in 1950, when his title „The Yellow Rose Of Texas“ occupied the number one spot of the US Billboard charts for 6 weeks and Miller sold more than one million records.

In 1957, he was able to increase this success even further when he conquered the peak in Germany with „March From The River Kwai“ being part of the OST of the film „The Bridge on the River Kwai“ and sold 4 million singles.

For all vinyl lovers, Mitch Miller’s greatest hits are now available on this LP.

Title: Yoga Flow (Remastered)Artist: GURU ATMAN

Guru Atman creates with his music a gentle and soothing atmosphere for yoga sessions. The remastered album „Yoga Flow“ is an ideal musical accompaniment especially to gentle yoga moves. The Bansuri flute plays soulfully to soft sitar sounds and takes the listener on a the listener on a contemplative journey. Guru Atman’s music flows like a long calm river: relaxing and vitalizing at the same time.
