Title: Hardstyle 2023Artist: VARIOUS

If there is one genre in the field of electronic dance music that can be described in every respect with the word EPIC then this is HARDSTYLE.

Everything about HARDSTYLE just sounds larger than life. The iconic sound of the bass is simply destined to be at its very best in front of hundreds of thousands of people at a festival. The punchy audio effects sound like they came straight out of a Hollywood flick. The synthesizer sounds so huge that they fit to the stage constructions of the big hardstyle festivals like DefQon.1, Qlimax, Mysteryland and Dominator. Hardstyle is simply bigger than life.

Curious now? On the brand new compilation Hardstyle 2023 from ZYX Music you get the best tracks by the most famous hardstyle artists.

Get down to tracks by Brennan Heart, Da Tweekaz, Sub Zero Project, Coone, Wildstylez, Firelite, Warface, TNT, Zatox and many more! From „Euphoric Hardstyle“ - a very melodic and tendency poppy variant of hardstyle to „Rawstyle“ - a particularly hard style with especially brute sounds - you get the perfect overview of the scene and its subgenres. By the end of the CD, the tempo ramps up again and culminates in the great song „Infinity“, a collaboration between D-Block & S-Te-Fan and Sefa. Thus, Hardstyle 2023 is perfect for the gym, for getting in the mood for the festival season or to push the subwoofers in the car to their limits.

Title: Stand And Conquer
Artist: LEGACY

-CD booklet (20 pages) and LP inlay include a recent interview with Darin Moore.

The nineties were not always easy for traditional metal bands and especially in the USA it took many years after Grunge, Crossover and Co until the situation eased again. Insiders know, however, that there were a lot of homegrown productions that also raised the flag across the pond. Among them were LEGACY, which was founded at the end of the nineties to celebrate their style, which was influenced by Dio and Judas Priest on the one hand, but also by Dream Theater or Symphony X on the other. Acts from their native Ohio like Chastain, Magnitude 9 and Arch Rival must be mentioned as well.

In 2000 the debut „Slay The Beast“ was released, which was still recorded live on analog tape in a short time. Thus the band considers „Stand And Conquer“ as the first „real“ album, especially since the line-up had sorted itself to an optimal line-up between both releases. Some copies also reached Germany, where you could find a full-page interview (by Martin Brandt) in the magazine Heavy (aka. „Heavy Oder Was?!“). For the -20th Anniversary there is now not only a remastered version of the CD including 20 pages booklet (liner notes, photos, lyrics, scans etc.), but also for the first time an LP (with printed inlay).

Title: The First Experience With The Unknown
 Artist: SACRAFACE

In the Detmold area (Westphalia, Germany), there wasn't much going on for metal fans in the first half of the eighties. Fortunately, the members of two bands met in 1982 in a chip shop and recognized their common preference for hard music by their long hair, leather jackets and moustaches, which were good manners at that time. In this moment SACRAFACE were born, who subsequently became local heroes - of course influenced by the NWOBHM that was just spilling over into Germany, but also by the usual suspects like Black Sabbath, Deep Purple, Rainbow or Kiss, as well as Judas Priest and the early Accept.

Two unusual choices were made at once: In the spirit of Def Leppard or Led Zeppelin, the band name was deliberately changed - i.e. NOT Sacrifice, but Sacrafice. And they decided not to make the typical demo tape, but a 12" EP on their own. This one is called „The First Experience With The Unknown“ and can be bought here and now on Discogs for 120 Euro and more used.... But already the book „Heavy Metal Made In Germany“, which was published in the nineties via Iron Pages, lists the record as „Top German Metal Rarity“. No wonder, because the quite aggressive heavy rock and metal knows how to please even today - or maybe especially today - and reminds us of the upbeat mood of the German metal scene in the first half of the eighties. This is also true for the three live tracks, which have been elaborately restored in days of work.

Another house number are the tracks of the follow-up band TranQuill (that's right, that's the correct spelling). The mostly overlong songs can be classified as heavy prog. Due to various circumstances these pearls remained (as good as) unreleased. Again, a lot of time and work was invested in restoring and mastering these private studio recordings (there are six long TranQuill songs on the CD version, while there was only room for two tracks on the LP, without losing sound quality). As always, the printed inlay contains liner notes (actual interview with a former band member). Photos and other illustrations.

The CD version of the Golden Core re-release has already received very good reviews in Rock Hard and Good Times, among others!

Title: Nordisco
Artist: ITALOCONNECTION

Mordisco Records is happy to present the brand new Italoconnection ,Nordisco'

The catchiness and sobriety of the songwriting and style of Scandinavian music is something that keeps attracting us since many years, so we decided to pay tribute to some of our favorite artists and songs.

Music coming from the cold, melancholic with a European feel that we always aim to attire in our productions.

Artist and songs coming from different backgrounds that we tried to make ours by adding some of our club friendly sound respecting the original songs attitude.

All the songs were chosen from the repertoire of fairly different artists, both from the past and present days. Picking from the modern crooner style of Jay-Jay Johanson, past glories like Secret Service and Fake, the early nineties extravaganza of Army Of Lovers, the very unique singer-songwriter flair of Saralunden, the talented duo charm of Carino Cat, the finnish electro disco pioneers Digital Dance and the synthpop innovator's Jaakko Eino Kalevi uniqueness, all artists have a special place in our heart.

Available on LP vinyl and CD (including two bonus remixes from On The Radio and Donna Rouge
