

Title: Techno Club Vol. 69

Artist: VARIOUS

Trance will never die! Volume 69 der legendären Technoclub Compilationserie mit Talla 2XLC und seinem Special Guest Woody van Eyden aus den Niederlanden, der es seit den 90er Jahren mit seinem einmaligen Stil bis in die deutschen Charts und auf die größten Bühnen der Welt geschafft hat. Als langjährige Kollegen haben die beiden Musiker zusammen mehrere Tracks produziert, gemeinsam aufgelegt und sich dabei als Team bis zur Perfektion eingespielt, was man auf dieser fast 160 minütigen Compilation mit 2 CDs bestens hören kann. Dieses Mal gibt es als Geschenk einen exklusiv bedruckten Technoclub-Magnet dazu, mit dem ihr nicht nur Kühlschränke und Whiteboards verzieren könnt!

Title: Decade Of The Nail-Spiked Bat

Artist: JAG PANZER

At the beginning of the 2000s, traditional heavy metal started to recover so slowly after waves like grunge, gothic or crossover during the nineties. Jag Panzer had already been back for a few years and could position themselves in the scene again with new albums. Only the first EP and the overpowering debut „Ample Destruction“ were no longer available and there were constantly new bootlegs on CD. It was similar for the demo recordings that followed the first album, „Shadow Thief“. The legal situation at that time did not allow official re-releases.

In 2003 Jag Panzer decided to re-record twenty songs. With a powerful and above all perfectly transparent production, „Decade Of The Nail-Spiked Bat“ convinced even those fans who don't like re-recordings in their shelves. Another argument were and are the tracks that appeared on the modern-oriented album „Dissident Alliance“ (1991), and here for the first time shine in new splendor with Harry „The Tyrant“ Conklin on vocals. The cover is dated from 1985 and should have graced the follow-up to „Ample Destruction“.

Jag Panzer are currently on everyone's lips as they are making a very big media splash for their new album.

Title: Passion
 Artist: ROBIN TROWER

It was with the band Procol Harum that the gifted guitarist became famous back in the late 60s, before debuting under his own name from 1973 onwards. In his extensive discography was missing over the last few years a classic, „Passion“, which is now released again on GCR. A special re-issue of a still playing rock legend.

Title: Johnny Black Band Album
 Artist: JOHNNY BLACK BAND

One would think that the world is small enough by now to know a punk rock legend like Johnny Black (aka. John Black) living and active in the New York area... also in Europe.

He started out in clubs like CBGB and in 1990 an obscure album was released under the name JOHNNY BLACK EXPERIENCE, which has long been out of print. Together with the well-known actor Michael Imperioli (The Sopranos, among others) he put on the show WHO KILLED JOHNNY THUNDERS? and recorded two songs with Walter Lure, guitarist of Johnny Thunders And The Heartbreakers. Johnny Black was and in the thick of things instead of just being there.

In fact, he has been so busy with shows in recent years that an album already produced has not been a focus for him. This is incredible not only because of the quality, but also because with Daniel Rey a renowned producer sat at the controls! Known for his work with the Ramones, Misfits, Gang Green, Rhino Bucket or Masters Of Reality („Sunrise On The Sufferbus“), he gave the untitled disc an organic-transparent sound with a lot of authentic power, which brings the feeling of a sweaty club into the living room at home. A bit of a masterstroke!

While punk today is often mass pop, or conversely turns into hardcore, Johnny Black serves the original American school. A lot of rock'n'roll and (as they like to say today) classic rock, but also the brashness and attitude of punk and garage rock.

Golden Core/ZYX Music are proud to have been awarded the CD and LP release! The theme will be the absolute focus of Golden Core/ZYX Music in the coming weeks.

Title: Born To WinArtist: SPIELFILM

Smart-mouthed junkie J.J. (George Segal) thinks he's got the world by the tail. But he spends most days looking for just one more fix. Can he hold onto his girlfriend and turn his life around? Doesn't look good...

This powerful, gritty drama won significant critical acclaim when it came out in 1971 and features great performances for a fine cast, including stars Segal, Karen Black and a young dynamic Robert De Niro.

Often compared to Midnight Cowboy, this penetrating look at desperate people living on the edge (and the lies they tell themselves) is not to be missed. A must for film buffs, this eagerly anticipated DVD release is the very best in gripping, intense drama and is sure to become special favorite in your collection.
