Title: Dark Techno 2024

Artist: VARIOUS

Few DJs are polarizing the German techno scene quite like Sebastian Groth.

The German DJ and producer opts for relentless, high-tempo techno, raw sound design with oldschool influences. Now Groth presents the brand new edition of DARK TECHNO 2024. This DARK TECHNO is a style that's been circulating on the scene for a few years now and, as the name suggests, is a dark kind of techno, with a healthy dose of reverb and abstract, claustrophobic sounds.

With this DCD, hardcore fans and those wishing to become fans will find all the genre's hottest tracks in their ears.

Title: If At first You Don't Succeed

Artist: HADES

HADES was undoubtedly one of the leading representatives of American metal bands who seasoned traditional heavy metal with speed and thrash elements. Founded in 1978, the first two singles „Delivers From Evil“ (1982) and „The Cross“ (1985) were even simpler. The same applies to the track „Easy Way Out“ on the „Metal Massacre VI“ compilation. In 1987, the band released their debut album „Resisting Success“ on Torrid/Combat (in Europe Roadrunner Records), which made them immortal in underground circles. With much more demanding song structures and Alan Tecchio's imperious vocals, the band deliberately rejected the mainstream and reached a fringe of loyal, fanatical fans.

In 1988, the band set to work on their successor „If At First You Don't Succeed“, which proved difficult at first due to excessive drug use on the part of the producers. Despite this, Hades' second album is considerably more powerful and transparent than the first. The long track „Aftermath Of Betrayal“, with its intro („Tears Of Orpheus“) and outro („Finale“), and songs like „Kings In Exile“ follow in the footsteps of its predecessor, while „Opinionate!“ and „In The Mean Time“ lean more towards melodic thrash. To this day, fans argue over which LP is the best. It was only later that the style evolved towards a mid-tempo groove (third album „Exist To Resist“). Alan Tecchio and Dan Lorenzo founded Non-Fiction and released three albums that can best be classified as doom.

After countless CD reissues of „If At First You Don't Succeed“, Golden Core now offers the first vinyl reissue! The material was transferred from the Torrid original and remastered, then mastered for vinyl. The A side contains a bonus track, „M.E.C.“. The printed inlay contains rare texts and photos.

Dan Lorenzo is currently enjoying success with PATRIARCHS IN BLACK, whose second album was recently released on LP by Golden Core.

An American metal classic is now affordable again on vinyl!

Title: For All We KnowArtist: JIM SNIDERO

With his alto sound soaring over a sax trio format on “For All We Know”, Jim Snidero demonstrates why he is a critical link in the alto saxophone lineage. Snidero pares down the soundscape to its essence, utilizing a set of standards to illuminate a rare combination of virtuosity, musicality and depth along with jazz masters Peter Washington-bass and Joe Farnsworth-drums. With a tone quality that’s second to none—Stereophile cited his sound as “one of the richest and purest on the planet”—Jim Snidero has showcased an enviable resonance in myriad contexts over the better part of the past four decades and 25 previous releases. Now, placing himself in the most exposed setting he’s ever inhabited, Snidero reaches the apex on the alto saxophone.

Title: Dancing Alone
Artist: VENTURA, FRED

This new release by Italian artist Fred Ventura tells a story that began about forty years ago, a song that remained in the drawer for several years and only recently released in demo format in a compilation. The artist's affection for this song pushed him to contact some of his favorite producers to give the song a new look and a definitive release in 12" format. In these six remixes the post-punk sound of the original version evolves towards Italo disco, synth pop, minimal synth and techno sounds without ever losing the emotional impact of the original.
