

Title: Gin Lemon E.P.
Artist: GIGI D'AGOSTINO

Introducing the early masterpiece of the exceptional Italian artist Gigi D'Agostino. Before conquering the European charts with hits like „Bla Bla Bla“, „The Riddle“ and „L'Amour Toujours“ and becoming an international superstar, Gigi released the legendary „Gin Lemon E.P.“ in 1997. Even back then, it impressed with its typical danceable rhythms and superb melodies.

Now, „Gin Lemon E.P.“ is finally available again on 2 CDs.

Title: Bat Shit Crazy
 Artist: RHABSTALLION

Rhabstallion belong to the New Wave Of British Heavy Metal bands and are known to insiders as they released a now rare single (Day To Day) in 1981. The melodic heavy rock would have deserved more attention, but at least a live recording was made by the BBC. In 1994, all the recordings were compiled on CD by the Vinyl Tap label. The community was surprised when the band reappeared in 2019 performing acclaimed live shows and released their first album „Back In The Saddle“ on Golden Core. Unfortunately, the coronavirus pandemic prevented this CD/LP from reaching its full potential, but the follow-up „Bat Shit Crazy“ goes one step further.

preliminary tracklist

- Bat Shit Crazy
- Better Late Than Never
- Now That You ´re Gone
- Strength Within Me
- Ghost Dance
- The House
- Sold My Soul
- The Call
- Going Nowhere
- Who Am I
- Driving Seat (Live)
- Stand Up (Live)

Title: Preface (1991)
 Artist: NON-FICTION

During a European tour by HADES, it became apparent that the band would soon break up. Guitarist Dan Lorenzo formed Non-Fiction with Dan Nastasi (MUCKY PUP, DOG EAT DOG), who subsequently recorded an EP. However, the line-up carousel was to turn again and HADES and WATCHTOWER singer Alan Tecchio and bassist Kevin Bolembach (later SEVEN WITCHES, JACK FROST, among others) joined the band. In 1991, the debut „Preface“ was released on Grand Slamm Records, in Europe on Steamhammer/SPV. At the time, many fans of HADES and WATCHTOWER must have been surprised by the doom metal sound, while fans of this style remained unaware of it without the Internet. It is astonishing that certain trademarks of HADES can still be found throughout the music of NON-FICTION (see also the 1995 reunion album by HADES). The cover artwork, reminiscent of the splendor of the Hipgnosis graphics company, gives the album a perfect aura and hints at the groove of old LED ZEPPELIN.

Both HADES and WATCHTOWER (with Alan Tecchio) are - sporadically - active again today and quite a few fans are hoping that Non-Fiction will also make another appearance. The musical continuation, albeit a little more modern, is currently Dan Lorenzo's band PATRIARCHS IN BLACK, currently enjoying success in the USA.

Title: Mumien
 Artist: FLOH DE COLOGNE

The band was founded on January 20, 1966 by Cologne students, initially as a political cabaret. The group grew out of the Cologne APO [Non-parliamentary Opposition in Germany (Außerparlamentarische Opposition APO)] around the SDS [German Socialist Students' Union], its political orientation evolving over the years towards a clearly dialectical and Marxist position. Independently of each other, group members joined the DKP [German Communist Party] between 1970 and 1973. On September 6, 1970, the band performed at the Fehmann Festival following Jimi Hendrix; this was their last performance. In 1973, Floh from Cologne performed as part of a West German delegation at the 10th World Youth Festival in East Berlin. From 1980, part of the band (with Vridolin Enxing as chairman) was active in Rock gegen Rechts [Rock against the extreme right]; in the same year, the band was awarded the Deutscher Kleinkunstpreis with Gerhard Polt. After more than 3,000 concerts in Germany and Europe, Cologne Floh disbanded in May 1983 after a farewell tour. The farewell concert in Cologne's sports hall attracted 6,000 spectators and lasted 14 hours, with the participation of numerous musicians such as Hannes Wader, Dieter Süverkrüp, Franz-Josef Degenhardt, Hanns-Dieter Hüsch, Die 3 Tornados, BAP and Ina Deter. In 2023, the group was awarded the Holger Czukay Honorary Prize by the City of Cologne for its lifetime artistic achievement. With the rock band cantata „Mumien“, the group reacted in 1974 to the 1973 putsch in Chile, notably by setting to music the last speech of deposed president Salvador Allende. In the same year, the band worked with Hans Werner Henze on alternative musical settings of Chilelied (Cet été chilien était doux; 1974), lyrics: Rudi Bergmann (* 1950), first performed on May 31, 1974 in Essen (Grugahalle: memorial concert for Víctor Jara, at the same time a demonstration of solidarity with the resistance in Chile). „Mumien“ has not yet been reissued on vinyl, and the only CD version (with the album „Vietnam“) dates from 1995.
