Title: Braving The Tempest

Artist: ATTAXE

Attaxe were founded in 1985 in Cleveland, Ohio, USA, by singer Juan Ricardo. They released several demos in the late 80s that made it to the top of many college radio playlists, including 'Out of The Storm' in 1986 and 'Metal Messiah' in 1987.

In 1988 a side project demo called 'Zyclone' was released featuring guitarist Gregg Perry and in 1989 Attaxe released 'Are You Ready?' which got a lot of radio airplay.

In 1990 Attaxe appeared with 'Pedal To The Metal' on the compilation 'Heavy Artillery', which is still popular today. Attaxe disbanded in 1990 when singer Juan Ricardo joined Torment, a band that famously changed its name to Ritual. In 1993 they recorded the album 'Trials Of Torment' for Massacre Records, which also established Juan Ricardo as the perfect US metal singer in Europe.

After years of being asked for demo recordings, Juan released a compilation that included the demos entitled 'Attaxe - 20 Years the Hard Way' in 2006.

Attaxe officially reformed in 2019 and signed with Pure Steel Records, reissuing '20 Years the Hard Way' in 2020.

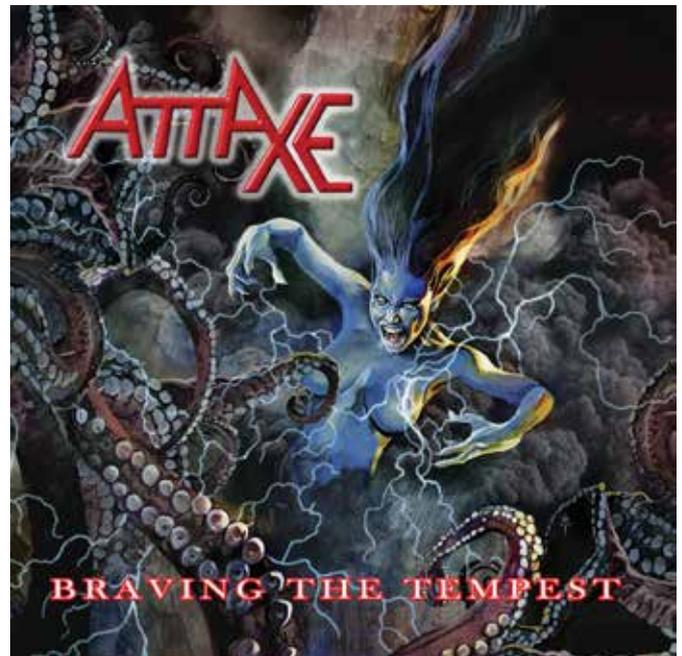

Their first album Attaxe - Braving The Tempest will be released on 30 August 2024 on Golden Core/ZYX.

Juan Ricardo is one of the few truly typical US metal singers. He is currently still active at Wretch and was previously with Blind Cross, Sunless Sky, Arena, Chemikill and Stryker, among others.

ATTAXE already have some confirmed gigs in Europe!

Title: The Last Sign Of Eden
 Artist: CHAOS PATH

The arrival of the conqueror is near and the world as we know it is doomed to destruction. At least, that's what threatens mankind according to the story that Kassel's Chaos Path have been preparing on their previous releases 'The Awakening' (2018) and 'Downfall' (2019), and which will be completed on their third opus 'The Last Sign Of Eden', due out on 6 September.

Chaos Path's roots lie in Nordic-inspired melodic black metal, which the band mixes with the harshness of German thrash to form a blend that is both innovative and groundbreaking. 'The Last Sign Of Eden' playfully combines razor-sharp riffs, brutal flurries, progressive structures and highly melodic guitar work with the anthemic epic of heavy metal and immediately soaks into the ear canals.

The band's structure around the two founding members Ancient Weapon (v) and Richy Backfire (g) and long-term drummer Soul Obliterator has been greatly enhanced in recent years with the arrival of new members Nocturnal Reaper (g) and The Doom Lord (b), making the strongest line-up in the band's eight-year history a reality. The quintet celebrate an intense, dark live performance and have already conquered numerous club and festival stages. Most recently, they played at Metal Bash and Protzen Open Air, and around the time of the album release, the band can still be seen live at Schwalm Metal and at the album release show on the open-air stage in Hann. Münden. Chaos Path is an important part of the very active scene in and around Kassel, as well as underground metal in general.

Title: Send Me An Angel - The Barber Angels Rock - Collection (Vol. 1)

Artist: VARIOUS ARTISTS

'Send Me An Angel - The Barber Angels Rock - Collection (Vol. 1)' is the title of an extraordinary charity album created in collaboration with the Winnende cult label 7us media group. The key track of the sampler is the remake of the real-life hit 'Send Me An Angel', which was recorded by the Stuttgart synth-pop band The Second Sight together with the Barber Angels Brotherhood e.v. - to draw attention to the work of this international association of hairdressers, which cuts the hair of the homeless and needy free of charge. But that's not all: five euros from the sale of the charity CD will go to the Barber Angels Brotherhood e.v.. At the same time, it also marks the 40th anniversary of the global hit, which was promoted by current 7hard boss Hans Derer in 1984 and reached gold status in Germany. The members of the Barber Angels are also very active: they have sung with Roland Kaiser and have also been featured on programmes such as ZDF's 'Hallo Deutschland' and SWR's 'Landeschau'. Their next big assignment is at the legendary Wacken Festival. Here they will be in action with around 35 hairdressers - and will also be offering their first charity CD. In addition to 'Send me an Angel', the chorus of which they sang along to, there are 20 other rocking songs to be heard - all artists from the 7hard label, who - of course - have waived their earnings.

This extraordinary rock sampler offers only the best for every rock fan: from international classic rock (Kee Marcello from Sweden, Backwater and Rash Panzer from Switzerland, Twisted Rose, Mojo Blizzard, Rubbish from Germany, Hairy Groupies from the Czech Republic and Barebone from Cyprus) to powerful symphonic rock (Evolucija from Serbia, Moran Magal from Germany or Agonizer from Finland); from sweat-inducing punk rock (NoRMAhI, X-Plizit, Nitro-X and Bettman) to German-language rock poetry (Randy Mach or Valenteano). With Psycho Village, the cult three-piece from Vienna, a NuMetal star also shines and the powerful vocal ensemble 'Stimmgewalt' towers over everything in a genre-spanning virtuoso manner.

Title: Hommage An Zupfgeigenhansel (Mit Lieder Und Texten
 Artist: MATTHIAS ALMSTEDT

With 'Fatal ist mir das Lumpenpack', the successful homage to Heinrich Heine, he achieved several placings in the 'Liederbestenliste'. Now Matthias Almstedt, a committed and passionate singer-songwriter from Marburg, is dedicating himself to the work of the legendary folk duo Zupfgeigenhansel, whose first public appearance under this name will be 50 years old on 17 November.

Many of the well-known Zupfgeigenhansel songs can be heard in new interpretations on the songwriter's long-awaited album in folk circles. Songs that are still highly topical today. Almstedt is accompanied on guitar by the well-known string virtuoso Tina Kuhn. Title of the album: 'Hommage an Zupfgeigenhansel - Mit Liedern und Texten gegen den Krieg, die Pfaffen und die Obrigkeit' 'Andre, die das Land so sehr nicht liebten' is not only a homage to Zupfgeigenhansel but also to Theodor Kramer.
