Title: Squadron (AT)Artist: SQUADRON

-the first band of Klaus Sperling (Primal Fear, Nitrogods, Sinner) and Michael Moretto (Tyrant'Pace)
 -only regionally released recordings from 1984 and 1985, for the first time on CD & LP
 -high-quality heavy metal with 100% eighties feeling
 -CD/LP with liner notes, illustrations and an extremely large number of photos
 -cover artwork by Michaela Widmayer (Manilla Road, Mark Shelton, Trance)

Sometimes you lose faith. Labels like Noise, Steamhammer, Mausoleum, Earthshaker or the GAMA label group released many important and good albums in the eighties, but also average or worse. Meanwhile, a talented and rousing band called SQUADRON from the Stuttgart area remained undiscovered (until today). Even on Encyclopedia Metallum you won't find an entry with the two demos they recorded in 1984 and 1985. Not yet.

The band was founded in 1983, influenced by Judas Priest, Iron Maiden, Warrior, Manowar, Ozzy Osbourne and Dio. One of the first shows took place as the support act for Tyrant. They quickly gained a reputation as a gigantic live band, especially as they not only paid attention to polished songs, but also to their outfit and show. Just a few months later, 400 fans came to the Neckerhalle Esslingen, even though Accept were playing just around the corner on the same day. They also broke the audience record in "Die Röhre" Stuttgart, where they put on a big show after the second demo. Of course, bigger labels were also in touch, but no contract was signed. After a festival with Rage, Veto and Stranger, as well as a few shows with Czakan, 1987 was the end. Michael Moretto subsequently joined Kymera to replace Andi Deris, who had left to join Pink Cream 69. Klaus Sperling is still active in the business today and has been with the Nitrogods since 2011. He became known for his drumming with Primal Fear, Sinner, MP and Freedom Call.

The material has been painstakingly restored and mastered and is now available for the first time on CD and LP. The booklet and LP inlay contain liner notes and tons of photos and illustrations. This band could have gone far back then...

Title: A Murder Of CrowsArtist: DEADSOUL TRIBE

- first vinyl release of the debut album by DEADSOUL TRIBE
- feat. Devon Graves (aka. Buddy Lackey) from PSYCHOTIC WALTZ
- epic prog metal for fans of PSYCHOTIC WALTZ
- mastered for vinyl, with printed insert
- Limited to 300 copies

When the truly unique act PSYCHOTIC WALTZ disbanded in 1997, there was a gap that could only be filled with the formation of DEADSOUL TRIBE in 2001. Singer, flautist and figurehead Devon Graves, also known as Buddy Lackey, had moved to Vienna in the meantime because of a relationship, where he found suitable musicians for DEADSOUL TRIBE. On the debut "Deadsoul Tribe", Davon Graves still played some instruments himself, but they were already a band with four members. Even though the style may differ from PSYCHOTIC WALTZ in some respects, the target group is automatically defined. And even a little broader, because in addition to metal and prog, you can also hear influences from Tool. The very organic-sounding album received very good reviews and was readily accepted by the fans. The band then played at the Prog Power Europe Festival in Holland.

It is astonishing that DEADSOUL TRIBE's albums have not yet been released on vinyl, especially since the PSYCHOTIC WALTZ 2024 catalog has been reissued (Inside Out/Sony Music). Golden Core are now closing this gap with the first two albums, mastered for vinyl of course and with a printed insert. The LPs are limited to 300 copies, which are sure to sell out quickly.

Title: ParoleArtist: LUISA

The 1980s were a golden era for Mike Mareen and his label, Night'n'Day Records. In just a few short years, Mareen carved out a stellar reputation on the German electronic dance music scene, excelling both as a groundbreaking artist and a hit-making producer. His tracks, alongside those he produced for other artists, dominated the charts and filled DJ crates across Europe. One of the standout talents he nurtured was Luisa, a singer from Bad Oeynhausen, who recorded „Parole“ under Mareen's guidance. With its Italian title and lyrics penned by Italian songwriter Rocco Caruso, the track exuded a breezy, summery vibe. While it didn't achieve massive chart success at the time, „Parole“ became a staple in DJ sets across the Eastern Bloc, quietly winning fans with its airy charm. Over the years, the track's cult following grew - and now, there's even more reason to celebrate. Recently unearthed session tapes from Night'n'Day Records have revealed previously unheard versions of „Parole.“ These rare gems, along with the original release and a special DJ edit, are now part of a brand-new reissue, fresh and ready to spin for a new generation. Get ready to rediscover the magic of „Parole“ - a timeless piece of ,80s nostalgia brought back to life!

Title: Vision Of LoveArtist: DJS PROJECT

DJ's Project was a collaboration between Italian vocalist Silvano Pulignano and German DJs/composers André Schmechta, Bernd Schöler, and Claus-Christian Pesch. In the 1980s, the group released three singles that garnered quite a success, with production by the legendary Mike Mareen and distribution through his Night'n Day Records label. The standout track from their catalog remains the highly sought-after single „Vision Of Love.“ This breezy, well-crafted euro disco gem captures everything that defined the genre in its heyday, with its light melody and polished production. During the recent digitization of Night'n Day Records' original master tapes, unreleased material was unearthed, including the previously unheard instrumental version of „Vision Of Love.“ This fresh reissue not only includes that rare version but also features a special DJ Edit, making it an essential addition for collectors and DJs alike.

Title: Schlagerfete '25
 Artist: VARIOUS ARTISTS

After the successful "Schlagerfete24", which - as part of the Lufthansa in-flight program - was even a hit above the clouds, the Winnende-based music marketer 7us media Group GmbH is once again releasing a sampler with a guaranteed good mood:

"Schlagerfete ,25", as the title suggests, offers - presented for the first time by the established pop magazine HOSSA! - offers a truly melodious mixture of Schlager and pop, performed by artists from their Schlager label Herz7: whether DSDS winner Prince Damien or the power duo Tanja and Ines, whether cuddly star Steffen Sturm or TV legend Wolfgang Lippert, whether "Rampensau" Jörg Augenstein or the singing entrepreneur Vivien Jäger - there is something for every Schlager fan! With: Louella, the charismatic Hamburg pop singer and SAFIYA, Frankfurt power woman, the compilation makers are also pleased to be able to present two singers from established third-party labels. Because "quality", according to Herz7 boss Hans Derer, should not stop at company gates. In addition to chart highlights such as "Nur mit dir" by Daisiana, "Sugar Sugar" by Laura Angela and "Chaos Queen" by the 50s combo The MICCI's, the full hit package shines with two brand new and previously unreleased hits, all of which will only be released in January: Power voice Christian Deussen, who has just been crowned Munich's carnival prince, opens the album with his new German pop hit "Beste Zeit", while the formation "Hotwife" delivers a tongue-in-cheek suggestion for a carnival hit with "Wo ist der Prinz". Dr. Maibach, Lilo Pulver's charming great-nephew, revives the best Bohlen times with his chart-topping radio hit "Magie", while the exceptional Hanseatic voices of Esther Filly and Anthony Bauer Jr. show with their powerful voices why they are among the most booked entertainers in the country. Two acts come from the proven hit factory of Bavarian sound coach Florian Glötzl: Mario Albers, a likeable newcomer whose Herz7 debut was celebrated frenetically in the local press, and Anuschka Miccoli, German-Italian curvy model whose "Das ist doch genau mein Stil" was written by none other than Axel Breitung (DJ Bobo etc.). The final song on the packed sampler was penned by Diana Herold herself: "Wunder Leben" was written by the actress-singer on her own vocal chords. Not a thoroughbred pop song, but a personal, positive pop gem that celebrates the most important thing we have: life! With this in mind, put the CD on and have fun!

Title: Born To Rock'n RollArtist: RASH PANZER

“Shine A light” is not only the sound debut of the duo Thomas Rodenbach and Nadine Pimanov (The Voice 2022), but also the title of a charity sampler of the same name.

The two singers of the title track are united by a fate that they deal with in their song: The loss of a parent at a young age. Based on their own experience, they donate a portion of the proceeds to organizations that help children and young people cope with grief - €3 for each CD sold.

Fans of soft, subtle pop sounds will find a veritable cornucopia of soul-touching songs. Renowned acts such as Kathy Kelly (Kelly Family) with “You Sleep with angels” or Diana Herold with the encouraging “Engelsflügel” ensure this. Andy Wilsing, one of the best rock singers in the country, offers musical consolation with his gentle timbre and “Silent Chords”, Twisted Rose, the Franconian rock four-piece led by Chris Waluga, deals with the loss of loved ones with “Watch The Stars” and Moran Magal, front woman of the Berlin dark rock band of the same name, with the touching “Tododo”.

Title: Chansons Francaises CelebresArtist: JEAN FAURE & ORCHESTRE

JEAN FAURE, a practicing Rhineland Frenchman for 40 years, hails from Gap in the Provencal Alps, in the south of France. In Bonn, in addition to his job as announcer for various radio and TV stations, he was involved from the outset in "Pink Punk Pantheon", Bonn's alternative carnival.

Here, he was already highly regarded as a French chansonnier, but when he launched his own project in 2007 with Matthias Höhn and his "Orchestre", he was able to achieve many things on stage that would not have been possible before.

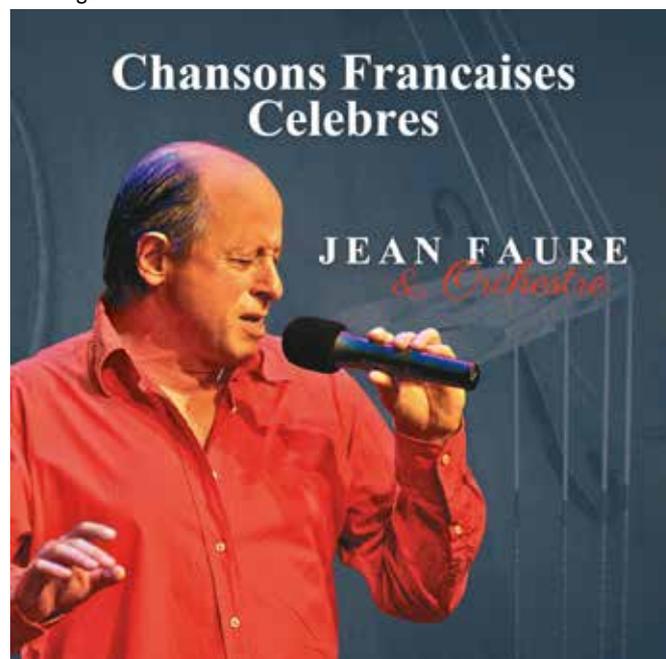

The first "Pourquoi pas?" program was initially a "concert of wishes" by Jean Faure and his musicians.

This CD gives a colorful overview of the French hits we still have in our ears in Germany: Boris Vian's "Le déserteur", Gilbert Becaud's "Nathalie", Barbara's "Göttingen", the imperishable "La Mere", "C'est Si Bon" and many others. Enough to revive memories...
