Title: Koslowsky & Faaterland
Artist: FLOH DE COLOGNE

With Koslowsky & Faaterland, legendary band Floh de Cologne presents another masterpiece of their musical artistry. This CD is a thrilling blend of sophisticated lyrics, political satire, and unique sounds that reflect the spirit of the times in which they were created. Known for their unorthodox style and sharp humor, Floh de Cologne once again tackles social and political themes in their unmistakable fashion.

The title Koslowsky & Faaterland is both a tribute to the band's musical journey and a satirical look at life's realities. The songs range from biting commentary to deep reflections, all delivered with musical finesse and humor. Blending rock, punk, and political cabaret, this CD is a true delight for fans of thought-provoking music and social criticism. Floh de Cologne remains true to its reputation on Koslowsky & Faaterland, blurring the lines between music, art, and political commentary. A must for anyone looking for more than just entertainment – a musical journey full of wit, depth, and creativity.

Title: Total Annihilation
Artist: BLOODRUNNER

- First “real” CD release of the 2008 album
- Available for the first time on vinyl
- US thrash and speed metal with a strong dose of traditional metal
- 2025 remaster; CD includes a live bonus track

Bloodrunner, from Illinois, USA, formed in 2004 when thrash metal was far from trendy. Especially in the U.S., traditional metal styles were pushed to the underground – quite the contrast to today. Only established bands like Anthrax or Slayer, who flirted with modern elements, gained any attention. But the newly formed Bloodrunner didn’t care. They just wanted to play their favorite music and party hard!

After a demo in 2007, their only album Total Annihilation followed in 2008 – a pure celebration of raw musical joy. Its less polished moments are offset by unbridled energy, which is worth more in heavy metal than technical perfection. Despite their youth, the musicians showed impressive skills and solid craftsmanship, including diverse songwriting that avoids constant thrash pummeling. This makes the album accessible even beyond hardcore thrash fans.

The production is organic yet powerful – showcasing the kind of sonic authenticity often missing in today’s genre releases. Originally only available as a burned CDR and digital release,

Total Annihilation has now been remastered separately for CD and LP. The CD edition includes a live bonus track.

Title: Somewhere Up In The Mountain EP
 Artist: MARQUIS DE SADE

Orchestrated re-recording of one of the best and rarest NWOBHM singles

- Includes the two original tracks from 1981 (restored, remastered)
- Intensive liner notes with background information on this release and the 1981 original
- Available as CD and LP, with separate masters!

The reuniting NWOBHM band MARQUIS DE SADE is making a very special comeback. Their previous comeback album, „Chapter II“ (Golden Core/ZYX), was widely celebrated, especially since the sometimes epic material appeals not only to metalheads but also to fans of bands like Magnum. As a result, they played numerous gigs in their home country England and secured a slot at the prestigious Keep It True Festival, where they consistently impressed audiences. „Somewhere Up In The Mountains,“ side A of the rare 1981 single, has proven to be a NWOBHM hit in recent years. It has been covered by bands like Roxxcalibur and Dragon's Kiss and is constantly shared on social media. The epic style of the song, which was recorded very raw and primitive in 1981, inspired the idea to produce an orchestrated version as an update and alternative to the original. The result is astonishing and demonstrates how „great“ the song truly is. The former B-side, „Black Angel,“ which is much heavier than „Somewhere...“, also works well in this new sound. Here, the band and orchestra play together, not just side by side as often happens in such projects. A new version is not meant to replace the original. Therefore, the extended EP also includes the two original versions of the extremely rare 1981 single. These were restored and remastered by Patrick Engel. (Interview contact: BattleProd@t-online.de)

Title: Wild Ride
Artist: FLORIAN-SAMUEL SPAETH

With the single Heartache Stay Heartache, 22-year-old guitarist and producer FLORIAN-SAMUEL SPAETH from Rüsselsheim delivers his debut release on GC-Records.

A heart-wrenching blues ballad that sounds – musically and visually – more American than Hessian. Florian proves he's not just a gifted guitarist but also an internationally styled vocalist. A leading talent in the new generation of blues.

The debut album WILD RIDE follows this single in style and energy. It's now not only available on streaming and download platforms but also as a physical CD.

FLORIAN-SAMUEL SPAETH seems poised to break through as part of the new blues generation. Evidence includes airplay on stations like HR and SWR – and increasingly, international radio in the USA and UK.

His many years as a live and studio musician are now paying off. Expect numerous live performances and media appearances from FLORIAN-SAMUEL SPAETH in 2025.

Title: Also jetz' bass nomml uff
Artist: SCHTRAISALTS

Wolle Kriwanek, Grachmusikoff, or Schwoißfuaß are yesterday's news – now come the Schtraisalts! This five-piece band, founded by Manu and led by the dynamic frontman and tattoo artist Mari (known from shows like "Big Brother," "Auf Streife," and "Regio TV"), delivers premium hand-crafted Swabian rock with a healthy dose of self-irony and humor. After Mauldäschle and Spätzle mit Soß, these musicians may well be the next major Swabian export hit.

Their current album Also jetz' bass nomml uff is just like the band: honest, down-to-earth, and entertaining. Their original songs explore everyday themes – from first date nerves in a sleeping bag to a forgetful bartender and nostalgic reflections.

Music connects – and the Schtraisalts live and breathe that, both in their recordings and entertaining live shows.

Title: Forever And A Day
Artist: SUPERBOWL

Originally released in 1985 on the Italian label London Records Production, Superbowl (or 93rd Superbowl) is an italo disco project with two big names behind: Gianfranco Bortolotti and Roberto Arduini. Together they created this very recognizable italo disco style based on powerful bassline and energetic synth leads. Very catchy and dancefloor fillers.

The re-issue includes the same tracklist as the original release, Forever and a Day on A side and Forever and Two Days on B Side (kinda a full vocal dub version).

Available on Blue, 'Azzurro' Transparent and black vinyl.
