Title: Honoring Pat Martino, Vol. 2
Artist: ALTERNATIVE GUITAR SUMMIT

Five years after it's first volume, Alternative Guitar Summit returns with Honoring Pat Martino, Vol. 2, a second tribute to one of jazz guitar's towering voices. Drawn largely from 2021 pandemic-era sessions, these performances capture a moment when making music together carried renewed meaning and urgency. What began as a canceled live event evolved into a series of intimate studio recordings, bringing together a distinguished group of artists to celebrate Martino's enduring legacy. Guitarists including Kurt Rosenwinkel, Cecil Alexander, Dave Stryker, Paul Bollenback, project producer Joel Harrison, and others, offer personal interpretations that reflect both reverence and individuality. Newly recorded tracks from 2025 complete the program, adding unique perspectives to this expansive portrait. Rather than replicate Martino's singular voice, these artists honor his legacy by engaging the depth, sophistication and genius of his compositions, reaffirming their place at the heart of the modern jazz canon.

Title: The Latin Side Of Chick Corea
Artist: CONRAD HERWIG

For more than three decades, trombonist Conrad Herwig has worked the sweet spot where modern jazz meets Afro-Caribbean fire, building his acclaimed Latin Side of... series into one of the most distinctive runs in contemporary jazz. Forged in the company of masters like Eddie Palmieri, Mario Bauzá, and Tito Puente, Herwig brings authority and imagination to the bandstand. Now he takes on The Latin Side of Chick Corea, celebrating a composer whose music thrives on motion, color, and cross-cultural spark. Drawing from Corea's catalog, from early landmarks like the albums Tones for Joan's Bones and Now He Sings, Now He Sobs to the electric energy of Return to Forever, Herwig and co-arranger Bill O'Connell dive in with bold ideas and a fearless approach, reshaping the material with a sure feel for where it comes from and where it can go. Pieces like „Spain,“ „500 Miles High,“ and „Windows“ ride a deep groove, opening fresh pathways while keeping their melodic impact front and center. With a crack ensemble featuring Craig Handy, Alex Norris, and a rhythm section that locks in and lifts off, Herwig leads performances that are tight, driving, and full of attitude. This is no reverent retread. It is living, breathing music that engages and excites. The series here hits another high mark, the conversation growing deeper, richer, and more compelling.

Title: Shadows From Afar
Artist: DREAMS IN FRAGMENTS

They have already toured Europe and shared the stage with big names in the scene such as Xandria and Freedom Call; now they are set to take off: Dreams in Fragments, the Swiss symphonic metal quartet, are releasing their new album, „Shadows from Afar“. But what exactly do Dreams in Fragments do? Melodic metal? Symphonic metal? Metal with a female lead singer? Although they tick all these boxes, the band's music transcends these genre boundaries. "Shadows from Afar", the Swiss quartet's third album, re-explores these boundaries across ten tracks.

„This Fairytale's A Lie“, the first single, illustrates this perfectly, as breakneck speed and powerful intensity merge into an epic sweep, and a guitar solo accompanied by horns majestically complements the narrative of the dark underside of a fairy tale.

Title: Doubts and DemonsArtist: MICK SCHEUERLE AND THE RAINBOW TURTLES

Mick Scheuerle himself is undoubtedly one of the country's finest rock and blues guitarists, and certainly one of the most stylistically accomplished, having made a name for himself as the well-travelled string virtuoso of the punk band NoRMahl. Whether rock, blues or folk – this musician, who always seems utterly at ease, excels in every musical genre, whether playing acoustic or electric.

Following the overwhelmingly positive response to his solo albums and his thrilling performances with the „Rainbow Turtles“, Mick Scheuerle is delighted to present the songs from his new album „Doubts and Demons“ – all of them timeless masterpieces. Particularly noteworthy are the singles „Haunted“, „Something 4 U“ and the legendary „Homburg“ by Procol Harum.

Title: Mondpalast
Artist: MONDPALAST

Mondpalast – that's Eike Freese and Stefan Aurel, two seasoned professional musicians with extensive live experience, who don't just make music with their project, but provide the soundtrack to their own most intense moments. Their name stands for a sweat-inducing mix of stadium rock, power pop and epic ballads that get right under your skin. From fragile melodies to rock-solid guitar riffs – their songs ignite a veritable firework of passion. Mondpalast are the answer to the growing calls from radio listeners and concert-goers who miss the 'guitar-driven danceability' à la Springsteen – particularly in today's live scene for contemporary rock and pop music.

Mondpalast recorded their debut album at the world-famous Chameleon Studios in Hamburg – the studio of Eike Freese, who has shone with 13 number-one trophies in recent years. Here, in one of the country's most creative music hotbeds, the sound that defines the band was born: raw, unpolished and yet perfectly produced. Freese brought not only his experience as a producer to the table, but also his unique passion for every detail.

That's what makes this project so exciting – whether you're an AC/DC fan married to a Helene Fischer fan: both should be equally engaged by the live show – and ideally bring their children along.

Title: Mind GamesArtist: WEBB

The English metal band WEBB are releasing their second album, „Mind Games“. It was recorded at Ryan Webb's studio and is characterised by a central thematic thread: the album deals with frustration, which is underscored by aggressive guitar and bass riffs as well as extremely dark lyrics.

„Mind Games“ differs significantly from the band's previous album, „Deadly Sins & Virtues“, which, whilst offering a harder sound for WEBB compared to earlier releases, did not quite match the intensity of their new album.

The album was written, produced and mixed by Ryan Webb and is by far the heaviest record they have ever produced. „Given everything that's going on around us, it was clear to us that we would write another album consisting largely of songs full of pain and anger. But that's not how I feel in real life at all!“ says WEBB of their new album.
