TECHNOCLUB VOL. 79

Mixed by Talla 2XLC & Cold Blue

Two DJs, two original mixes and plenty of trance! For Technoclub Vol. 79, Talla 2XLC has teamed up with Cold Blue, whose emotional, uplifting sound has been thrilling trance fans all over the world.

CD 1 belongs to Talla 2XLC. He has been shaping the trance scene for decades and knows exactly how to turn individual tracks into a rousing set. Contemporary trance, big melodies and powerful club tracks form the basis for a mix in which the energy is carried through from track to track. It's not just the individual hit that counts here, but the set as a whole.

On CD 2, Cold Blue takes over. The German DJ and producer is synonymous with uplifting trance that gets under your skin whilst still packing a proper punch. Emotional melodies, intense builds and powerful climaxes characterise his mix and demonstrate why his sound has such a huge global following.

Two distinct styles that complement each other perfectly on a double CD. The Standard Edition brings together both mixes with the latest highlights from the international trance scene.

Technoclub Vol. 79 – two DJs, two mix CDs and trance just the way we love it!

Title: The Game Changer
Artist: BRANDON SANDERS

The Game Changer, Brandon Sanders' latest Savant recording, finds the drummer doing what he does best: setting the pace, creating opportunities, and elevating everyone around him. Joining the ensemble for this outing are Stacy Dillard, with his uniquely exciting saxophone sound, and the imaginative pianist William Hill III, alongside longtime collaborators Warren Wolf and Eric Wheeler. With special guest artists vocalist Briana Swann, who brings „a little grit, a dash of soul, and a whole lot of midnight in her voice,“ and trumpeter Jeremy Pelt, of whom Nat Hentoff wrote „It is the beat of Pelt's heart... that underscores the future of jazz,“ Sanders has assembled a band that brings both seasoned authority and youthful energy to a program of originals and carefully chosen favorites. Rooted in the hard-bop tradition, The Game Changer draws on a wide variety of musical genres and influences, which Sanders enhances and expands, reflecting his broad musical vision and his belief that it's all just music.

Title: House Of TraneArtist: JIM SNIDERO

A visit to John Coltrane's home on Long Island, New York, ultimately became far more than a source of inspiration for alto saxophonist Jim Snidero. It catalyzed his continued evolution as both a composer and improviser, yielding deeply personal music while remaining firmly rooted in the tradition that shaped him. The result is an album that honors one of jazz's greatest visionaries while standing confidently as a compelling artistic statement in its own right. Six originals reflect on various aspects of the home in which Coltrane composed A Love Supreme, with Snidero's choice of collaborators—pianist Stefan Karlsson, bassist Nat Reeves, and drummer Jason Tiemann—proving essential to transforming his vision into a distinctive musical statement.

Title: Fragments Of Insanity
Artist: MOJO BLIZZARD

Since their formation in 2018, MOJO BLIZZARD have been synonymous with powerful stoner metal that deliberately pushes the boundaries of the genre. With heavy riffs, striking melodies and an unmistakable blend of stoner rock, doom, classic hard rock and heavy metal, the band combines influences from Black Sabbath, Kyuss, Candlemass, Iron Maiden, Deep Purple and Uriah Heep to create a sound all of their own.

The musicians bring a wide variety of musical backgrounds to the table: frontman Nicolaj Ruhnow has already gained many years' stage experience in international metal productions, whilst the other band members have their roots in stoner, punk and metal. This diversity shapes MOJO BLIZZARD's characteristic sound – earthy, dynamic and yet catchy. It leaves you wanting more. And, above all, it whets your appetite for the album, which is due for release on 9 October.
